

City Hospitals analysis

City growth affects each city's hospitals, schools etc. This growth happens because of the people's demands. Because of this growth it affects the price of everything. So the government wants to open a new hospital but first of all they want to see information about the number of each regional hospital , over the age analysis and each department's sum of deposit.